COST

Sales are usually looked upon with a degree of allowance by the general public. But we think the people of Dodge City and vicinity feel that we do as we advertise.

OUR COST

Mark is hung up in plain sight and you can tell the cost of goods as well as can.

We still have some great bargains left in Dry Goods, Clothing, Notions, etc.

Yours truly,
R. M. WRIGHT & CO.

Racket Store.

People are beginning to realize the significant meaning of Spot Cash. The manufacturer has more goods made up than he has sale for. He has bills to meet, and Spot Cash has a clear ring to him. He thinks not of profit but raising cash.

Our New York representative is on hand with the Almighty Dollar, and the goods are bought at two-thirds their value.

Our Mr. Rouss of New York City has been obliged to erect a building eclipsing anything in the mercantile world 185,000 square feet of space. If there were not something in the Racket business it would not require it. The numerous drafts on Mr. R. for goods, from his representatives from Maine to California, requires a force working night and day-and the good work goes on.

Weather Report for January, 1890.
The temperature was above the average, but there have been nine warmer Januaries on our 23 years' record—in 1869, 1870, 1871, 1874, 1876, 1878, 1880, 1882 and 1889. The rain fall was more than twice the average and has been exceeded in only two preceding Januaries. The cloudiness was much above the average, and the wind-velocity was nearly normal.

Herd Law.
As Mr. "free ranger" has written in reply to Mr. N. Marath. I will write a word. He says we do not have any free range, for part of our neighbors will not let us pasture on their buffalo grass, while others don't take in their crops, and that spoils the whole free range. What grass we have on our land is ours, and the little stock is ours, if your cattle eat up and destroy it, you, as a christian and neighbor we expect you to pay, as the stock is yours and the crop is ours.

The free ranger wants our feed for nothing. We don't ask him to give us something for nothing, as the law is we are equal and that is where the trouble is. While the little farmer is gone east his stock don't trouble the free ranger, it is a free ranger's stock that eat the poor man's crop while he is making an honest dollar. Mr. free ranger did you expect to have the whole country to range on when you came here? If so, you are mistaken.

You say you all know this is not a farming country. So smart men said the late war was a failure, but with Lincoln, Grant and W. T. Sherman at the wheel it was a success. So will this be a successful farming country with N. Marath and plenty of stock men. Free ranger wants what he calls free range, that is, something for nothing. If we damage his stock he will collect damage, we claim the same right to protect our crops.

Some portions of the country is well satisfied with the herd law. You will find men without a hoof of stock or a foot of land signing petitions to repeal the herd law. What for? Because free ranger wants the names. If free ranger has more trouble with the herd law than he did before. What is the trouble?

Something wrong free ranger, if your cattle keep off your neighbor. Where is the trouble? You spoke of my cattle not bothering other people, herd law or no herd law. Mr. free ranger if you keep your cattle with what you have a right to they will be no trouble to your neighbors.

If you make a free range out of this country what will land be worth? What can free ranger pay for land to range on? His answer would be I don't want to buy. Write again free ranger.

HERD LAW ALL THE TIME.
18 years in the country.

GEMS FROM THE PLAINS.

Songs to the Plains of the West.
CAPT. W. HUSTON STRICKLER.
[Julian de Lano, Bill of the Plains,] Humorous writer of earth's joys and sorrows, of its life, its beauty, its grandeur, and of its all truest glory, and pictures, and best of all the bright scenes of the Plains of the West.

The sun rises equal a bright sea of gold. And in the distance, the half was told When the Spirit's departed, and no heart throbbing breast. May we sleep in thy bosom, bright Plains of the West.

In the bosom contented without harm or fear. Like the child with its mother, on the eyelids the tear. Would tell that our worry and fears are at rest. Are at rest on thy bosom, bright Plains of the West.
